

Symbolic Leadership

An effective leader demonstrates the capacity to model important values and behaviours to the school and community, including a commitment to creating and sustaining effective professional learning communities within the school, and across all levels of the system.