

Technical Leadership

An effective leader demonstrates the capacity to optimise the school's financial, human and physical resources through sound management practices and organisational systems that contribute to the achievement of the school's vision and goals.