MEDIA RELEASE

Friday 18 May 2012

Kingston Heights Primary School to celebrate Education Week!

Kingston Heights Primary School will celebrate Education Week with an open day featuring student-guided tours and live performances.

Education Week will be held from May 20-26 when hundreds of government schools and kindergarten programs throughout Victoria will open their doors to the community through open days, student exhibitions, performances and other special events that showcase the programs and learning opportunities they offer.

Local families are invited to learn more about Kingston Heights Primary School by joining in its Education Week celebrations (outlined below).

WHAT: Open Day
ICT, Performing Arts and Science programs on show. Student demonstrations in all classrooms, student performances in the auditorium, poetry and short-stories on display in the library.

WHEN: Wednesday 23 May 2012, 10.00am-1.00pm

WHERE: Kingston Heights PS, Casey Crescent, Kingston
Student-guided tours commence on the hour from the Performing Arts Auditorium. Parent information session at 11.30am in the school library hosted by Principal, Jane Smith.

GREAT PHOTO OPPORTUNITY:
Grade five and six students will perform songs in full costume from this year’s annual school concert. Performances at 10.00am, 11.00am and 12.00pm

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Contact: Jane Smith, School Principal
Phone: 9555 6464
Email: info@khps.vic.edu.au