LEADING LIGHT
JACK O'RIELEY

Jack O’Riley will transform into a catchy, hardworking, and strong-minded young professional in a musical for the Victorian State Schools Spectacular. The 19-year-old has spent the past two years honing his skills to play the role of Jack in Shine On 2010: Victorian State Schools Spectacular.

In the blood
SABINA MAMMARELLA

Perth-born Sabina Mammarella is a cast member of Jersey Boys, the current Australian touring production of the smash-hit Broadway musical. She has performed in the musical in Melbourne and is now on tour in Sydney, playing the role of其实名唱家。Sabina says her experiences with the Spectaculars have instilled the value of hard work and taught her to pursue her dreams, even when they seem impossible.

Talent shines in a POLISHED PERFORMANCE

Thousands of Victorian school students will unite in a spectacular performance about respect, friendship and triumph in the face of adversity. The State Schools Spectacular, one of the largest arts events in Victoria, showcases the exceptional arts experience and talent of Victorian students. This year, the Spectacular will be presented in three parts, Shine On 2010: Victorian State Schools Spectacular at the State Theatre. The production will feature a range of spectacular performances, including musical theatre, dance, and visual arts, as well as a huge orchestra, choral groups, and dance troupes. The production aims to unite the state’s school students in a spectacular performance that celebrates the young talent of Victorian schools.

IN THE BLOOD
SABINA MAMMARELLA

Performing in Jersey Boys, Sabina Mammarella says her experiences with the Spectaculars have instilled the value of hard work and taught her to pursue her dreams, even when they seem impossible.

YEARS OF HARD WORK
MEGAN SALPIETRO

Despite being still at school, Megan Salpietro has achieved a lot in the world of professional theatre. She started singing in primary school and continued her passion for music throughout high school. Her hard work and dedication have paid off, as she has now landed a role in the production of Jersey Boys. Megan says she has always dreamed of working in professional theatre, and her experiences with the Spectaculars have contributed to her ambition to pursue a career in professional musical theatre.