Spectacular has Sabina in a whirl

SHINE ON 2010: THE VICTORIAN STATE SCHOOLS SPECTACULAR

SABINA Mammarella loves to perform.
The year-12 student from Melbourne Girls' College in Richmond has been dancing since she was a toddler.
Next month she gets the chance to hit the big time when she performs in Shine On 2010: the Victorian State Schools Spectacular.

Sabina, who took up singing only four years ago, will perform the Dolly Parton hit, Nine to Five.
She is one of 2500 students from 190 government schools in the song and dance extravaganza.
The show will feature a 100-piece orchestra, 1100-voice choir, 53 vocalists, cheerleaders, backing vocalists, puppeteers and specialty acts.
Music will range from Beethoven and Vivaldi to Michael Jackson and Pink.

Showtime: Sabina Mammarella rehearses for the schools spectacular with Melbourne Girls College students.
Picture: TIM CARRARA