Rubrics are a common form of assessment for all year levels. Students are presented with the assessment rubric prior to commencing their activity. The teacher discusses the rubric with the class and outlines the expectations of the assignment. Each student understands what the teacher expects, and what constitutes a high quality piece of work.